

Backlog index

Measure of the residual civil, labour, family, social, criminal and economic cases (excluding land and mortgage register and registration cases) (in months) - the ratio of the number of unresolved cases and the number of cases received on average during one month. The index is calculated for cases excluding land and mortgage register cases (in SR) and registration cases (in SO and SR).