

Insanity

It is a mental condition that excludes the perpetrator of a prohibited act from being held criminally liable due to mental illness, mental retardation or other disturbance of mental functions.