

National Council of the Judiciary

It is a constitutional collegial body established in 1989. The powers of the National Council of the Judiciary are exercised in the form of resolutions adopted in plenary sessions. They concern legal acts regulating the system of the judiciary, the appointment of the Prosecutor General, and the appointment of judges