

Percentage of cases considered by courts of first instance (over 12 months) in the main category of cases indicator

Percentage of cases considered by courts of first instance in which the duration of proceedings exceeds 12 months (in the main categories of cases) - the ratio of cases that became final in the first instance after more than 12 months from the date of first registration with the court and all cases that became final in the first instance. Indicator calculated for the main repertoires: Regional courts: C, K, U, P, GC; District courts: C, K, W, U, P, RC, RNs, Nsm, GC, GUp. (from Sections 2.2).