

Resolved cases

It means that the case has been completed during a given reporting period: substantively or formally, by transfer to another recording device, by merging with another case or by transferring to another reporting unit.