

As at the last day of the reporting period

It means that it is the number of cases in the course of execution or settlement, after taking into account the receipt and settlements from the beginning of the recording device in a given case or from the moment of entering the case to be executed or handled.